Nd it came to pais, when Jahin king of Hazor had heard those things, that he tent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shinton, and to the king of Achshaph,

And to the kings that were on the north of the mountains, and of the plains, fouth of Cinnereth, and in the valley, and in the borders of Dor, on the welt ;

3 And to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebu-fite in the mountains, and to the Hivite under Hermon, in the land of Mizpeh.

& And they went out, they and al their holts with them, much people, even as the fand that is upon the fea-shore in multisude, with heries and chariots very many,

s And when all these kings were met together. they came and pitched toge-ther at the waters of Meroin, to fight a-gainst I rael.

6 9 And the Loap faid unto Joshua, Be not afraid because of them : f. r to merrow about this time will I deliver them up all flain-hefore Ifrael : thou fhalt hough their horfes, and burn their chariots with hre.
7 So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the wa ters of Meroin Sudgenly, and they fell upon them

8 And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Ifrael, who fmote the ., and chafed them unto great Zidon, and unto Mizrephoth-maim, and unto the valley of Mizpeh cast-ward, and they im te them, until they left them none remaining,

9 And Joshua did unto them as the Lord hade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

kingdoms. II And they smote all the souls that were therein with the edge of the iword, utterly destroying them: there was not any left to breathe; and he burnt Hazor with fire 12 And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them did Joshua take, and finote them with the edge of the fword and he utterly destroyed them, as Moies the fervant of the LORD commanded

13 But as for the cities that stood still in their strength, Itrael burned none of them, fave Hazor only ; that did Joshua burn, 14 And all the ipoil of thele cities, and the cattle, the children of I rael took for a prev unto thentielves: but every man they imote with the edge of the fword, until they had deitroyed them, neither left they any to breathe.

is I Asthe LORD commanded Moles his fervant, to did Motes command Jothing undone of all that the LORD com-

16 So Joshua took all that land, the hills, and all the fouth-country, and all the land of Gofhen, and the valley, and the plain, and the mountain of lirael, and the valley of the fame

17 Even from the mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir, even unto Baal-gad, in the valley of Lebanon, under mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them,

18 Joshua nrade war a long time with all those kings.

19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Ifrael, fave the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon; all other they took in battle.

20 For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, that they flould come against Irael in battle, that he might deftroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might deltrey them, as the LORD commanded Moles.

at & And at that time came Jofhua, and cut off the Anakims from the mountains, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Ifrae! : lofhua deltroyed them utterly with their cities

22 There was none of the Anakims left in the land of the children of Hrael: only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Achdon, there remained.

2: So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD faid unto Moles, and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Ifrael, according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land refted from war. C H A P. XII.

13 Nevertheless the children of Israel expelled not the Geshurites, nor the Maachathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathires dwell among the Israelites until this day.

14 Only unto the tribe of Levi he gave none inheritance; the facrifices of LORD God of Ifrael made by fire, are their inheritance, as he faid unto them.

15 fl And Moles gave unto the tribe of the children of Reuben, inberitance accor-

CHAP. IV The Israelites troubled at Abners death, &c.

A Nd when Sauls fon heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands were feeb'e, and all the Ifraelites were troubled. 2 And Sauls fon had two men that were captains of bands: the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the fons of Rimmon a Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin : (for Beeroth alfo was reckoned to Benjamin; And the Beerothifes fled to Gittaim, and were fojourners there until this day) 4 And Jonathan, Sauls fon, had a fon years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel, and his nurie took him up, and fled: and it came to pais as fine made haite to flee, that he fell, and became lame; and his name was Mephibosheth.

5 And the fons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came bout the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, who lay on a bed at noon,

6 And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they fmore him under the fitth rib; and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

7. For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bed-chamber, and they fincte him, and flew him, and be-headed him, and took his head, and gat them away through the plain all night.

8 And they brought the head of lift-bosheth unto David to Hebron, and faid to king, Behold the head of Ifh-bofheth the fon of Saul, thine enemy, which fought thy life; and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his feed. 9 91 And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the fonsor Rimmon the Becrothire, and faid unto them, As the Lord liveth, who hath redeemed my foul out of all advertity, to When one to'd me, faying, Behold, Saul is dead, (thinking to have brought good tidings) I took hold of him, and new him in Zikleg, who thought that i would have given him a reward for histidings:

it How much more, when wick, d men have flain a righteous person in his own house, upon his bed? shall I northerefore now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth?

12 And David commanded his young men, and they flew them, and cut off their hands and their lees, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron : but they took over the post in Hotolieth, and buried it in the lepulchre of Abners in Hebron.

9 So David dwelt in the fort, and called it The city of David: and David built round about, from Millo and inward. 10 And David went on, and grew great, and the LORD God of holts was with him.

11 And Hiram king of Tyre tent meslengers to David, and cedar-trees, and arpenters, and mafons: and they built

David an house. 12 And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Ifrael, and

And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah, and God smote him there for bis error, and there he died by the ark of God.

8 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uz-zah: and he called the name of the place

Perez-uzzah to this day.

5 And David was afraid of the Lord that day, and laid, How shall the ark of the Lord come to me?

to So David would not remove the ark of the Lorpun'o him into the city of David : but David carried it alide into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

11 And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed edom the Gittite three months: and the LORD blelled O-

12 ¶ And it was to!d king David, faying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom, into the city of David, with gladness.

thefe things, he was very wreth.

22 And Abf lom spake unto his bro-ther Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his fifter Tamar.

CHAP. VI. The building of Solomoni temple, &c. Nd it came to pais in the four hundred and fourieure year after the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomons reign over lirael, in the month Zif, which is the fecond month, that he began to build the house of the 1 ORD.

2 And the bouse which king Solomon thereof thirty cubits.

3 And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits mas the breadth thereof, before the house.

4 And for the house he made windows of narrow lights.

5 9 And against the wall of the house he built chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple, and of the oracle : and he made champers round about.

6 The nethermost chamber mas five cubits broad, and the middle was fix cubits broad, and the third mas feven cubits broad : for without in the wall of the house he made narrowed reits round about, that the beams inould not be faitned in the walls of the house.

7 And the house when it was in building, was built-of itone, made ready before it was brought thither: 10 that there was seither hammer nor ax, nor any tool of iron heard in the houle, while it was in building.

The door for the middle chamber was in the right tide of the houle: and they with winding fiairs into went up middle chamber, and out of the middle inso the third.

Q So he built the house and finished it; and covered the house with beams and boards of cedar.

10 And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they zested on the house with timber of cedar, ti Il And the word of the Lord came to Solomon, faying,

That all the people of the earth may know that the LORD is God, and 64 The same day did the king hallow. the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and meat-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings: be-cause the brasen alter that was before the LORD, was too little to receive the burnt-offerings, and meat-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings.

the children of Hrael,

21 Their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Ifrael also were not able utterly to de-stroy, upon those did Solomon levy a tribute of bond-fervice unto this day.

22 But of the children of Ifrael did Solomon make no bond-men: but they mere men of war, and his fervants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horiemen.

23 These mere the chief of the officers that were over Solomons work, five hurdred and fifty, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.

24 ¶ But Pharaohs daughter came up out of the city of David, unto her house which Solomon had built for her:

did he build Millo.

2; I And three times in a year did Solomon offer burnt-offerings, and peaceofferings upon the altar which he built unto the LORD, and he burnt incense upon the altar that was before the LORD; so he finished the house.

26 ¶ And king Solomon made a make of thips in Ezion-geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red sea, in the land of Edom.

27 And Hiram fent in the navy his fervants, thipmen that had knowledge of the fea, with the fervants of 5010mon.

5 For Solomon went after Alhtoreth the oddels of the Zidonians, and after Milom the abomination of the Amnionites. 6 And Solemen did evil in the fight of he LORD, and went not fully after the ORD, as did David his father.

7 Then did Solomon build an high lace for Chemosh, the abemination of Moab, in the hill that is before lerufaem; and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon.

S And likewife did he for all his strange vives, which burnt incense, and facrificed

9 ¶ And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Mrael, which had appeared unto him twice, the LORD commanded.

It Wherefore the LORD faid unto Solomon, Foralmuch as this is done of thee, and thou halt not kept my covenant and my fratutes which I have commanded thee, I will furely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy fervant.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country.

22 Then Pharach faid unto him, But what haft thou lacked with me, behold, thou feekest to go to thine own country? And he answered. Nothing: howbeit let me go in any wife.
23 ¶ And God titred him up another adverfary, Rezon the fon of Eliadah, which fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zubah.

24 And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, when David flew them of Zobab : and they went Damascus, and dwelt therein, reigned in Damafcus.

25 And he was an adverfary to Ifrael all the days of Solomon, belide the mifchief that Hadae did : and he abhorred

Ifrael, and reigned over syria: 25 ¶ And Jeroboam the fon of Nebat; an Ephrathite of Zereda, Sylomons fervant, (whose mothers name was Zernah; a widow woman) even he lift up bis hand against the king, 27 And this mas the cause that he lift up bis hand against the king: Solomon built Millo, and repaired the breaches of the city of David his father.

28 And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour :, and Solomon feeing the young man that he was industrious, he made him ruler over all the charge of the house of Joseph.

29 And it came to pass at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerufalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way: and he had clad himfelf with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field.

20 And Alfijah caught the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve even ten tribes.

36 And unto his fon will I give one tribe, that David my fervant may have a light alway before me in Jerufalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there.

37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign according to all that thy foul de-fireth, and shalt be king over Ifraet. 28 And it shall be, if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do that is right in my fight, to keep my fratutes and my commandments, as David my fervant did; that I will be with thee, and build thee a fure house, as I built for David, and will give Ifrael unto thee.

39 And I will for this afflict the feed of David, but not for ever.

40 Solomon fought therefore to kill Jeroboam: and Jerotoam arose, and fled into Egypt, unto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 ¶ And the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wifdom, are they not written in the book of 23 ¶ And it came to pa's after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he faddled for him the als, to wit, for the prophet whom lie had brought back.

24 And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and flew him: and his carcale was calt in the way, and the als ftood by it, the lion also stood by the carcafe.

25 And behold, men passed by, and saw the carcale calt in the way, and the lion standing by the carcafe: and they came and told it in the city where the old pro-

26 And when the prophet that brought him back from the way, heard thereof, he faid, It is the man of God, who was difo-bedient unto the word of the LORD: therefore the LORD hath delivered him anto the lion, which hath torn him, and fain him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake unto him.

cast in the way, and the as and the lion standing by the carcase: the lion had not eaten the carcale, nor, torn the als.

29 And the prophet took up the carcafe of the man of God, and laid it upon the as, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city to mourn, and to bury him.

30 And he laid his carcafe in his own grave, and they mourned over him, say-ing, Alas, my brother.

Then the people rejoyced, for that they offered willingly, became with per-ted heart they of cred willingly to the LORD: and David the king allo rejoyced with great joy.

Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of lundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all lirael, the chief of the faphors

2 So Solomon and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that w at Gibeon, for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Mofes the fervant of the Loru had made in the wildernels, 4 But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim, to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

c Moreover, the brafen altar that Be-zaleel the fon of Uri, the fon of Hur-had made, he put before the tabernach of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation fought unto it.

In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and faid unto him, Ack what I have the like.

13 9 Then Solomon came from bis journey to the high place that was at Gibeon, to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Ifrael.

14 And Solomon gathered chariots and horfemen : and he had a thoufand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in the chariotcities, and with the king at Jerusalem,

15 And the king made filver and gold at Jerufalem as plenteous as ftenes, and cedar-trees made he as the fycomore-trees that are in the vale for abundance.

16 And Solomon had hories brought out of Egypt, and linen-yarn: the kings merchants received the linen-yarn at a 17 And they fetcht up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for fix hundred spekels of filver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so brought they out borfes for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, by their means.

CHAP. II.
Solomons labourers for building the temple. Nd Solomon determined to build an house for the name of the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

2 And Solomon told out threefcore and ten thousand men to bear purdens, and fourfcere thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and fix hundred to overfee them.

2 ¶ And Solomon fent to Huram the king of Tyre, faying, Asthou didft deal therein, even fo deal with me.

4 Behold, I build an Louie to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him tweet incenfe, and for the continual flew-bread, and for the burnt-offerings morning and evening, on the labbaths, and on the newmoons, and on the folemn fealts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to lirael.

s And the house which I build is great : or great is our God above all gods.

who is able to build him an house, seeing the heaven, and heaven of heavens carnot contain him? who am I then that I should build him an bouse, fave only to burn facrifice before him

7 Send me now therefore a man cun-ning to work in gold, and in filver, and in brais, and in iron, and in purple, and crimfon, and blue, and that can skill to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerufalem, whom David my father did provide,

8 Send me allo cedar-trees, fir-rees, and algum-trees out of Lebation : (for I know that thy fervants can skill to cut timber in Lebanen) and behold, my fer-build, fall be wonderful'great. 10 And behold, I will give to thy fer vants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thoufand baths of wine, and twenty thouland baths of cyl.

II Then Huram the king of Tyre anfwered in writing, which he fent to Solo-mon, Because the LORD hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them

12 Huram faid moreover, Bleffed be the LORD God of Ifrael that made neaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wife fon, endued with prudence and understanding, that might build an house for the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.

13 And now I have fent a cunning man (endued with understanding) of Huram

15 Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oyl, and the wine which my lord hath spoken of, let him fend unto his fervants:

16 And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as thou shalt need, and we will bring it to thee in flotes by fea to Jobpa, and thou thalt carry it up to Jerulale:n

17 9 And Solomon numbred all the Arangers that were in the land of lirael, after the numbring wherewith David his father had numbred them; and they were found an hundred and fifty thou, and and three thousand and fix hundred,

C. H. A. P. III.

The time of building the temple, &c. Hen Solomon began to build the house Moriah, where the LORD appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the thrething-floor of Ornanibe Jebuffte.

2 And he began to build in the fecond day of the fecond month, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 9 Now these are the things wherein Sosomon was instructed for the building or she house of God. after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

7 He overlaid alfo the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof with gold, and graved clerubims on the walls.

8 And he made the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and -the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and . he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to fix hundred tal into.

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty flickets of gold: and he overlaid the up-per chambers with gold. e And in the most holy house he made two cherubims of image-work, and overlaid them with gold.

rt & And the wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long : one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was of the other cherub.

12 And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits also, joyning to the wing of the opurple, and crimion, and fine linen, and wrought cherubins thereon.

15 Alfo he made before the house two pillars of thirty and five cubits high, and the chapiter that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.

16 And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars, and made an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.

17 And he reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand, Jachin, and the name of that on the left, Boaz.

6 ¶ He made al'o ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them : juch things as they offered for the burnt-offering, they walhed in them; but the lea was for the priefts to wash in.
7 And he made ten candlesticks of gold according to their form, and let them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

8 He made alfo ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right fide, dred balons of gold.

9 T Furthermore, he made the court of the priefts, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brafs.

Hus all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD, was finimed: and Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the filver, and the gold, and all the instruments, put he among the trea-sures of the house of God.

2 5 Then Solomon affembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribus, the chief of the fathers of the children of Afrael, unto Jernsalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD, out of the city of David, which is Zion.

3 Wherefore all the men of Ifrael affembled themselves unto the king in the featt, which mas in the feventh month.

And all the elders of Ifrael came, and Fter these things and the establish-ment thereof, Sennacherib king of A rier thereof, sennacherib king of Allyria came, and entred into Jakah, and encember against the fenced cities, and thought to win them for himself.

2 And when Hezekiah faw that bennacherib was come, and that he was purpoled to fight against Jerusalem;

2 He took counsel with his princes, and his mighty men, to stop the waters of the fountains, which were without the city: and they did help him. So there was gathered much people together, who flopt all the fountains, and the brook that ran through the midft of the land, faying, Why mould the kings of Allyria come, and find much water?

5 Also he strengthned himself, and built up all the wali tout na broken, and raited if up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired Millo in the city of David, and made darts and fhields in abundance.

6 And he fet captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and spake comfortably to them, saying,

7 Be itrong and couragious, be not a-fraid nor difinayed for the king of Affyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with us, than with him.

S With him is an arm of flefh, but with us is the Lord our God, to help us, as d to fight our battles. And the people relted themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Juash.

9 After this did Sennacherio king f Allyria fend his fervants to Jerufalen (but he bimfelf haid fiege against La lifth, and all his power with him unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah, that were at Jerusalem, faying,

12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taker away his high places, and he altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusatem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

13 Know ve not what I and my father: have done unto all the people of other lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands any wife able to deliver their lands out of mine hand?

14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations, that my fathers utterly deltroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God fhould be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor perfivade you on this man-ner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers, how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand

16 And his fervants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his fervant Hezekiah.

17 He wrote allo letters to rail on the Lord God of Irrael, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand. 18 Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews speech unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to aftright them, and to trouble shem, that they might take the city.

19 And they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth which were the work of the hands of man.

20 And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the fon of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven, 21 T And the LORD fent an angel which ent off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Allyma: to he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his rod, they that came forth of his own bowels, flew him there with the fword.

22 Thus the LORD faved Hezekiah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalein from the hand of Sennasherib the king of Allyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every fide.

23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: fo that he was magnified in the fight of all nations, from precious flones, and for fpices, and for fhields, and for all manner of pleafant jewels; 28 Store-houses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oyl; and stalls for all manner of beatts, and cores for flocks. 29 Moreover, he provided him cities, and possessions of slocks, and herds in abundance: for God had given him sub-france very much.

30 This fame Hezekiah also stopped the upper water-course of Gibon, and brought it straight down to the west-side or the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works. 31 9 Howbeit, in the bufiness of the amballadors of the princes of Babylon, who fent unto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

He words of Nehemials the for of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chisten in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,

2 That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah, and I asked them concerning the lews that had escaped, which were left of the cap--tivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they faid unto me, The remmant that are left of the captivity there in the province, are in great affliction and re-proach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire.

4 ¶ And it came to pass when I heard these words, that I sat down and went, and mourned certain days, and fatted, and prayed before the God of heaven, and faid, I befeech thee, O LORD

God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments:

6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayft hear the prayer of thy fervant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Ifrael thy fervants, and contess the fins of the children of Ifrael, which we have finned against thee : both I and my fathers house have sinned.

We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the command. ments nor the statutes nor the judgments which thou commanded& thy fervant Misfes.

9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the ut-termost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to fet my name there.

10 Now thefe are thy fervants, and thy people, whom thou haft redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand. 11 O LORD, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy fervant, and to the prayer of thy fervants, who defire to fear thy name: and profper, I pray thee, thy fervant this day, and grant him mercy in the light of this man.

nance be lad, when the city, the place of my fathers sepulchres, lieth watte, and the gates thereof are confumed with fire?

4 Then the king faid unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven s And I faid unto the king, If it pleafe the king, and if thy fervant have found favour in thy fight, that thou wouldst fend me unto ludal, unto the city of my fa-thers sepulchres, that I may build it. And 6 And the king faid unto me, (the queen also fitting by him) For how long mall thy journey be? and when wilt thou teturn? So it pleased the king to fend me, and I fet him a time.

7 Moreover. I faid unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come inking granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

9 I Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the kings letters. (Now the king had fent captains

12 ¶ And 1 arose in the night, I and some few men with me, neither told I any man what my God had put in my there to do at Jerulalem: neither wait fbere any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon. 13 And I went out by night, by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon-well, and to the dang-port, and viewed the wallsof lerufalem, which were bro-ken down, and the gates thereof were confumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the kings pool: but there was no place for the beaft that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entred by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whither. I went, or what I did, neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17 1 Then faid I unto them, Ye fee the diltress that we are in, how Jerusalem lietb waste, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

18 Then I told them of the hand of my God, which was good upon me; as alfo the kings words that he had fpoken unto me. And they faid, Let us rife up and build. So they ftrengthned their hands for this good work.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant the Ammonite, and Gestiem the Arabian heard it, they laughed us to foorn, and despited us, and faid, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king?

Separation from the multitude, &c. N that day they read in the book of Mofes in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite foould not come into the congregation of God for eyer;

2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them; that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

4 n And before this, Eliashib the priest, having the oversight of the cham-ber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah

Judah, and faid unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the fabbath-day?

18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Ifrael by profaning the fabbath.

19 And it came to pais, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark be-fore the labbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set at the gates, that there flould no burden be brought in on the fabbath-day.

7 And they gave them drink in veilels of gold, (the veilels being divers one from another) and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king. 8 And the drinking was according to the law, none did compel tor lo the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every mans pleafure.

king, 11 To bring Vafiti the queen before the king, with the crown royal, to flew the people and the princes her beauty: for the was fair to look on. 12 But the queen Vafiti refused to come at the kings commandment by bis cham-berlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him. 13 % Then the king fand to the wife-men, which knew the times, (for fo was 15 What shall we do unto the queen Valte, according to law, because the hath not performed the commandment of the king Abatuerus, by the chamberlains?

CHAP. II. Efther is chosen queen, &c.

Free thele things, when the wrath A of king Ahafuerus was appealed, he remembred Valhti, and what the had done, and what was decreed against her.

Then faid the kings fervants, that ministred unto him, Let there be fair young virgins fought for the king.

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shufhan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the cuto the hold of Hege the kings chamberlain, keeper of the women, and let their things or rurification be given them:

4 And let the maiden which pleafeth of Now in Shuftan the palace, there was a certain lew, whole name was Mordecai, the son of Spire, the son of Shime, the son of Kish, a Benjamite:

6 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem, with the captivity which had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

7 And he brought up Hadastah (that is Efther) his uncles daughter, for the had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautiful, whom Mordecai (when her father and mother were dead) tock for his own daughter.

8 ¶ So it came to pals, when the kings commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shufhan the palace, to the cultody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the kings house, to the cultody of Hegai keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and the obtained kindness of him, and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and feven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the Kings boufe, and he preferred her and her maids, unto the bell flace of the house of the women. To Either had not showed her people, nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her, that he floudd not flew it.

It And Mordecan walked every day before the court of the women's boufe, to know how Either did, and what thould become of her,

12 | Now when every maids turn was come, to go in to king Ahafuerus, after that me had been twelve months, accordding to the manner of the wo ben, (for for were the days of their purification accomplified, to wit, fix months with cyl of myrrh, and fix months with iweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women) the king : whatfoever the defired was given her, to go with her out of the house of the women, unto the kings house.

14 In the evening the went, and on the morrow me returned into the fecond hou e of the women, to the cuftedy of Shaafhgaz, the kings chamberlain, which kept the concubines: the came in urto the king no more, except the king de-lighted in her, and that the were called by name

15 Now when the turn of Ether, the daughter of Abibail, the uncle of Mordecai (who had taken her for his daughter) was come to go in unto the king, the requireth nothing, but what Hegai the kings chamberlain, the keeper of the wonien appointed; and Efther ob-tained favour in the light of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Efther was taken unto king Ahasuerus, into his house royal, in the reith month (which is the month Tebeth) in the seventh year of his reign. 17 And the king loved Efther above all the women, and the obtained grace and favour in his fight, more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen in stead of Vasari.

18 Then the king made a great feat unto all his princes and his fervants, 6ven Efthers feaft, and he made a releafe to the provinces, and gave gitts, according to the state of the king.

ig And when the virgins were gather-ed together the second time, then Mor-ecai fat in the kings gate. 20 Efther had not jet shewed her kindred, nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her; for Either did the commandment of Mordecai; like 2s, when he was brought up with him.

2t ¶ In those days, (while Mordecai fat in the kings gate) two of the kings chamberlains. Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the door, were wroth, and fought to lay hand on the king Ar huluenus.

22 And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Either the queen, and Either certified the king thereof, in Mordecai's name.

23 And when inquifition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree; and it was written in the book of the caronicles before the king.
